Speaker: Ken Larsen

Topic: Canon Raw Burst *

Description: Canon Raw Burst is a setting on the Canon R7 and R10 mirrorless cameras that allows for 1/2 of a second of pictures taken when the shutter release is pushed down 1/2 way. This 1/2 second of pictures is dumped and another 1/2 second of pictures taken; this group of 15 pictures is not saved until the shutter is pushed all the way down; then up to another additional 70 pictures are taken. Raw Burst is a way to try to anticipate action you are trying to photograph. I will bring the Canon R7 and R10 cameras and various RF lenses for people to review.

Presenter: Ken Larsen a member of Seven Ponds Photography Club since August 2022. I recently took up nature photography this summer and purchased the Canon R7 this fall.
